ORAL JUDGEMENT

(Per R.K.Abichandani,J)

The Income-tax Appellate Tribunal,Ahmedabad has referred the following question for the opinion of this Court under section 27(1) of the Wealth Tax Act, 1957.

"Whether the Appellate Tribunal is right in law and on facts in directing the Assessing Officer to charge rate at normal rate as against the maximum marginal rate of 3% charged by the WTO ?"

2. Similar question had come up for consideration by this Court in Wealth Tax Reference No. 47 of 1993 and by the decision dated 29.1.1998, it was held that though a representative assessee who holds the assets on behalf of the beneficiaries, whose shares are indeterminate or unknown, is required to be assessed as an individual, the provision of section 21(4) of the Wealth Tax Act made it clear that, that should be done in the same manner and to the same extent as the levy and recovery could be made from an individual. It was held that if an individual was not liable to pay wealth tax and the wealth tax was not recoverable from him, then to that extent, it could also not be recovered from such representative assessee who was required to be assessee as an individual. It was further held that it would be fallacious to say that the Legislature intended to take away the exemption limit which was applicable in such cases merely because higher rate came to be prescribed by the subsequent amendments. For this and other reasons, given for the said decision in Wealth Tax Reference No. 47 of 1993, we answer the question referred to this Court in the affirmative in favour of the assessee and against accordingly with no order as to costs.
